

Conservation Commission Minutes

October 7, 2009

Present: Renee Liebert, Stacy Luke, Mark Schultz and Terry Myshrall
Joe and Pat Mazzone

The meeting was called to order at 6:35 P.M.

NEW BUSINESS

Liberty Tree - Discussion on taking down the tree at the Booster Club, and planting a Dutch Elm in its place. The only charge is for transportation.

Annual Conference is Nov. 7th. Anyone wanting to attend to let Renee know within one week.

It was unanimously voted to move the monthly CC meeting to the 2nd Wednesday of the month.

Budget - Discussion on putting in for $1,000 per year as a line item for the CC. Also discussed getting LUCT on the warrant for the 2010 town meeting. Percentage to be determined.

Mil Foil: Amy from DES reporting that Mill Pond is full of it. The Mazzones were in attendance to voice their concerns about the mil foil in the area of their waterfront property, and what could be done.

OLD BUSINESS

Scenic Road Signs: Discussion on where to put the other one on the other end of Owl Brook Road.

Community Garden:
The library/grange lady interested, on Dana Hill.

Adopt-A-Highway:
Discussion on whether or not there a safety meeting that we need to attend?

Renee still had some daffodil bulbs, and had an ad on Craig's List to try to sell them.

Farmer's Market: Discussion on using the ballfield and bandstand.
